Pitch reading is reading notes on the staff. You and your child will begin this process with a look at patterns:
"stepping up" (going higher by adjacent notes)
"stepping down" (going lower by adjacent notes)
"staying the same" or "standing still"
"jump up high" (going higher by skipping notes)
"jump down low" (going lower by skipping notes)

The purpose of the work with patterns is to get the eye moving fluently along a contour.
